YOUTH CAMP DRESS CODE - OUR GUIDELINE IS MODESTY

All campers must dress in modest clothing. No shorts, cut-offs, low-cut or tank tops are permitted at Camp except as follows. Clothing considered appropriate for Sunday evening and/or mid-week worship Service/Youth Service should be worn to youth camp Evening Worship Services. We honor God by how we present ourselves during a worship service.

WHAT CLOTHES SHOULD MY CAMPER BRING?

Camp activities are best performed in play clothes that can handle wear and tear. Shorts, tees, and sneakers are suitable for day activities. Comfort is important so please remember that July is typically hot and humid.

WHAT ARTICLES OF CLOTHING ARE NOT APPROPRIATE FOR CAMP? We ask parents to help us adhere to a Christian standard of modesty by not allowing campers to pack the following: No clothing that promotes gangs, violence, weapons, drugs or alcohol. Shorts/skirt length should be knee length. Clothing should not reveal undergarments, cleavage, or the midriff. The following items are not allowed: oversized armhole sleeves; see-through garments; formfitting shorts; cut-offs, torn or ripped clothing; extremely oversized clothing; spaghetti strap shirts, camis (without appropriate clothing articles overtop) or tube tops.

Campers may not wear jewelry.

FULL COOPERATION AND DISCIPLINE OF ALL CAMPERS IS EXPECTED!

Any camper whose conduct is unbecoming in the opinion of the Ministerial Council may be dismissed from Camp without refund of the camp fee.

In order to avoid distraction from outside the grounds, youth camp is restricted to all but the staff and registered campers. Others may be on the grounds only with the director's permission. Please contact the camp director or your pastor about visits while youth camp is in session!

Parents are encouraged to record the camp address. Campers enjoy receiving letters at mail-call! Mail them early.

Parents and campers are requested to restrict telephone calls to emergency situations only.

Campers are to leave youth camp no later than 9:00 A.M. Saturday morning.

Please pay for this summer's youth camp!
